Dear Larry:

Thank you for the Confidential Record Sheet for Don Brooks of Troop 121. This will certainly help us to identify Mr. Brooks should he try to register in some other location.

As this case progresses please send us any information which you secure related to the outcome of the trial and sentencing. This will strengthen our file and help us to refuse registration at a later date wherever he may be located in the country.

If you can get any other information or statements from individuals in the troop this will also help us in refusing registration.

Officer charged with misconduct

A former police officer was charged with robbing a that he had not been recently after a weekly hunting trip to the hills by driving a camping trip to the hills of Seely's Camp, between Jackson and Grovetown. He was charged with making harassing telephone calls to the same boy in a related incident by the Mobile County Sheriff's Department. Donald Curtis Brooks, 20, of 1114 1/2 W. 10th Ave., was released on $5,000 bond pending a hearing before the grand jury in the Citrus County grand jury session.

According to Citrus County Sheriff Deputy Jack Day, Brooks came to the camp site about midnight, asking for a boy named Byrd. Brooks told the boy he was being taken for some other
